

A

You are individually responsible to:

- a. Act consistently with FCC's Purpose
- b. not cause any harm or detriment to the public image of FCC, or FCC Staff Members.

B

As a minimum, you are to become familiar with and strive to fulfill the following:

- a. The duty to exercise your membership in good faith and in the interest of the Fremantle community as a whole and for a proper purpose; and
- b. to not misuse information.

C

FCC members strive to help build a strong culture within the community based on the importance of openness, honesty, fostering trust and mutual respect. Confidential information will not be shared with competitors or to gain individual advantage.

D

You will relate to and communicate with the employees through the FCC CEO or Membership Manager, who may however, as a matter of mutual convenience, delegate another staff member to deal with or assist, either generally or on particular matters.

E

Behave with dignity and not bully, shout, abuse (physical or verbal), intimidate, belittle or harass fellow FCC members, FCC employees or Office Bearers.

F

Treat all people associated with FCC, including Board members, volunteers, partners, external stakeholders, staff and other members with respect.

Member Code Of Conduct

Fremantle Chamber of Commerce

